Getting Started

What is Jacobo's job?

Jacobo: Good morning, sir! I am ready for work.

Employer: Good morning, Jacobo. Today is your first day on the job.

Jacobo: Yes! I am ready. What should I do first?

Employer: Well, first turn on the lights.

Jacobo: Okay. I turned on the lights.

Employer: Now, clean the floor.

Jacobo: Okayyyy.... I am sweeping.... I am sweeping.... Alright! The floor is clean.

Employer: Good. The floor looks very clean. Excellent.

Jacobo: What should I do now?

Employer: Okay. Next you can open the door so that customers can come in.

Jacobo: Right! I'll open the door for the customers.

Employer: Do you know what you should do next?

Jacobo: Sell the customers groceries?

Employer: Yes! But first, tell them good morning.

Jacobo: I can do that. I like this job already.
