Instructions	Before class, tell students to download the 9 th grade Making Plans activity "Plan

Our Weekend.” To start the activity, have students bring up their empty calendar pages activity on their phones. Create groups with four people in each group. Tell the students that they have to plan their weekend together as a group—each of the four students has to agree to do the activities the group decides on. They should come up with four activities: for Saturday afternoon, Saturday evening, Sunday afternoon, and Sunday evening. Each group should talk and decide together how to plan their weekend. When all the groups have decided, have them share their plans with the class. The class can vote on the best weekend plans in the class.
