A good job for you

What job does the son want?

Mom: You are getting older, son.

Dad: Yes, son. You are. Which occupations interest you?

Son: Do you mean... which job do I want?

Dad: Yes. What kind of job do you want?

Son: Hmmmm.... I know what I don't want.

Mom: What is that?

Son: I don't want to be a cook or a taxi driver.

Dad: No? You don't?

Son: No. And, I don't want to be a doctor or a nurse.

Mom: Do you want to be a policeman?

Son: No. Also, I don't want to be a mechanic or a lawyer.

Dad: So, what do you want to be?

Son: I want to be a teacher. I want to teach students.

Mom: That is wonderful, Son! That is a good job for you.

Son: Thanks, mom. I think that it will be an interesting occupation.
